Fire Department

As reported by Greg Schreck, Fire Chief

Routine Activities for the month:

The Department responded to five calls for service and held three training sessions in January.

Firefighters toured and conducted a pre-plan of action at Gehling Welding. Shop owners conducted a walk-through tour with Department members, identifying hazardous areas containing various welding gasses and fuels. All employee and public entry and exit points, in addition to utility shutoff points, were also identified.

Training sessions focused on firefighting tools and equipment. A review of the location of tools stored on trucks and the proper usage of each tool was conducted. Random Department members were called upon to locate and demonstrate the operation of various tools identified by the training committee.

Fire Chief Greg Schreck, Lieutenant Jeff Cullen and Firefighter Jeff Helmkamp attended the Carroll County Firefighters Association meeting held in Templeton on January 23rd. Training topic for this meeting was Fire Department response to active shooter incidents.

Special activities/accomplishments of particular note:

- 1) Children's Programs: Story time programming this month included Rookie Readers and Diane's Read-Aloud. Outreach continued to area daycares, Head Start, and to the Romp & Read program at the Rec Center. The Reading Tree book donation program wrapped up this month with deliveries to Head Start, Partners for Families, HOPES and WIC. 152 tags were taken off the tree by library patrons and books were purchased for those 152 children. Some cash donations were used to purchase books for tickets that were not taken at the end of the donation period. This month, Diane also attended the Kuemper preschool parent literacy day for both the morning and afternoon sessions to talk to new preschool families about services offered for children at the public library.

- 2) Adult & Teen Programs: Adult programs continued this month with the regular monthly schedule of Tech Help Fridays, Crafty Ladies, Noon Book Club, Evening Book Club and the poetry group. A Senior Spotlight program was offered this month by the local Medicare rep to talk to seniors about Medicare fraud. Staff worked on completing details for the STEM after school club which will begin in February and is open to 3rd through 5th grade students that homeschool or attend Kuemper or Carroll schools.

- 3) Director Farewell: The Friends of the library held a going away coffee for Director Ledford. Her last day was December 16, 2016. The job was posted online with the State Library and with local media with a closing date of December 9th. Eleven applications were received and interviews were held the week of December 26th. No candidate has been hired at this time.

Special activities/accomplishments of particular note:

- Children's Programs: Story time programming this month included Rookie Readers, Diane's Read-Aloud, Ivan the Reading Dog, and outreach to area daycares. Due to weather, the children's program counts were lower than usual. The local boy scout troop was given a tour of the library with a special presentation by library staff. Diane is planning a partnership again this year with DMAAC for Earth Day. This year's event will be Saturday, April 15th from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. Dr. Whoot will be there as well as DMAAC volunteers to read stories, take pictures, color owl coloring sheets with kids, and sign up families for 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten. A special program will be provided by Blank Park Zoo with DMAAC covering the cost of the program fee.

- 2) Adult & Teen Programs: Adult programs continued this month with the regular monthly schedule of Tech Help Fridays, Crafty Ladies, Noon Book Club, Evening Book Club and the poetry group. Staff are working with other county libraries to plan this year's Everybody on the Same Page program. This year's theme is World War I with the adult book selection the same title chosen for All Iowa Reads, Bottomland by Iowa native Michelle Hoover. The children's selection is Finding Winnie by Lindsay Mattick. Programs will be offered again this year at all county libraries and will take place in the months of March and April 2017.

- 3) Director Search: Applications were solicited a second time in January for a new library director with a closing date in early February. Interviews will take place soon after the posting closes.

- 4) Upcoming Events: View upcoming events on the library's Google calendar at www.carroll-library.org by clicking on the Calendar of Events link on the home page.
