Hydrogeology with Carroll County Conservation

Thursday, September 18 at 10:30 am

Throughout history, water has shaped the landscape in Carroll County. Level up your conservation skills by learning more about this unique geology in your own backyard!

Author Visit: Elaine Marie Seaman

Saturday, September 20 at 10:30 am

Poet, quilter, and Kuemper alumni, Seaman will be joining us in person to read selections from her published poetry books and talk about her writing and publishing journey.

Author Visit: Jacqueline Reinig

Monday, September 22 at 2 pm

We are excited to host Reinig for an in-person discussion of her book and her writing process. Perfect for readers 9-99, and recommended for anyone who enjoys reading the fantasy genre or hearing from Iowa authors.

The Cribbage Club

Friday, September 26 at 4 pm

Shuffle the deck, build your crib, and let's see who will earn the title of Cribbage Champion. If you are new to cribbage, we will show you how to get started.

Booked for History: the Carnegie Library Legacy

Tuesday, September 30 at 6 pm

Level up your Carroll history knowledge with this fascinating program on the Carnegie Library program in general and the Carroll Carnegie Library more specifically. Dr. Shana Stuart will lead the presentation and we will follow it with a tour of the Carroll County Historical Museum.
